Sub: Clarification on rumour in social media

Dear Sir/Madam,

There have been some rumours circulated on social media that “Economic Offences Wing (EOW) has filed case against promoters of Suumaya Industries Limited in Money Laundering case.”

We would like to state that these are completely baseless rumours which are spread through various social media platforms to defame the Company and its promoters. These rumours seem to have been spread with malafide intentions to malign the company and its promoters and thereby cause damage to their reputation.

We would like to clarify neither any of the promoters or the company or any related party of the company have received any such notice or any action from EOW or any other investigative agency.

We would like to bring to the notice of Exchange and all our stakeholders that we at our Company follow best practises and highest level of corporate governance. Any significant developments on company or promoters will be disseminated to the exchanges on timely basis.

We are taking necessary steps to investigate into the matter and take strict legal action under the relevant statutes against the miscreants for making an attempt to defame the Company and its promoters in such a manner that deters any such future attempt to spread baseless rumours.

We are issuing this letter as a matter of good corporate governance practise and in the larger public interest especially all our stakeholders.

The above is for your kind information please.

Thanking you,

Yours Sincerely,

For Suumaya Industries Limited
