Take goat on loan, return 4 lambs: Maharashtra farmer starts unique 'Goat Bank' to fight agri distress

Pune.In a rapidly changing agricultural environment, a farmer in Maharashtra's Akola district has launched a 'Goat Bank' to promote integrated farming among fellow farmers and rein in profits. The 'Goat Bank of Karkheda' initiative in the Akola district of Sangavi Mohadi village is being applauded throughout the state.

52-year-old Naresh Deshmukh, a graduate of Punjab Rao Krishi Vidyapeeth launched the Goat Bank in July 2018.

Talking to India Today TV, Naresh Deshmukh explained at length the functioning of the extraordinary bank. In order to avail a loan, the interested farmer has to make a loan agreement by paying a registration fee of Rs 1,200. As per the agreement and loan conditions, each of the person availing a goat under the loan scheme has to return 4 lambs within the time frame of 40 months.

During his daily visits to the village, Deshmukh found, though economically weak, the woman farmers engaged in goat rearing could afford to buy small pieces of land, educate their kids, even celebrate a marriage ceremony with pomp and show.

After studying the families involved in goat rearing, Deshmukh took the decision to set up a 'Goat Bank' wherein he will organize this sector and make it available for loan schemes as well as for the deposit of goats.

He invested Rs 40 lakh from his savings and bought 340 full-grown goats. Subsequently, 340 goat breeding families were registered and all of these goats were distributed among them. It has been estimated that each of the women using the goat under this scheme will make a profit of around Rs 2.5

Nails Not Removed, Just "Repositioned": Cops On Farmer Protest Site Video

New Delhi. Nails fixed on the road at the farmers' protest site near the Delhi-Uttar Pradesh border are not being removed but only being repositioned to not cause problems to the public who may cross some spots, Delhi Police said today after videos of the nails being taken off the road emerged.

"Videos and photos are getting circulated in which it's shown that nails are being taken off in Ghazipur. These are just being repositioned. Position of arrangement at the border remains the same," the police said.

At the Ghazipur border protest site as well as at the capital's border points with Haryana, the police have set up rows of barricades, barbed wire fences and spikes on the roads and dug up trenches to prevent the protesting farmers from forcing their way in after the Republic Day violence last week.

Earlier today, a group of 15 opposition MPs from ten parties, who reached the Ghazipur border to meet the protesting farmers, were stopped by police, one of the MPs said.
