INDIA ENERGY WEEK

Energy sector seeing unprecedented growth: PM Modi

SUKALP SHARMA
Bengaluru, February 6

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi has invited investors to participate in the rapid growth being charted out by India's energy sector, saying that the major investment opportunities are being developed in the space.

In his address at the inauguration of India Energy Week here, Modi said that numerous areas of India's energy landscape—from conventional hydrocarbons to renewables and biofuels to promising futuristic fuels like green hydrogen—are witnessing unprecedented growth and are replete with opportunities.

Modi said that India's strategy for the energy sector is centered around four major verticals—increasing domestic exploration and production of oil and gas, diversification of energy supplies, expansion of alternative sources of energy like biofuels, ethanol, compressed biogas, and solar energy, and achieving decarbonisation through electric vehicles and green hydrogen. The PM said that India is working at a rapid pace in all these areas.

The PM highlighted numerous examples of growth and capacity ramp-up across the energy value chain. He said that while India is already the world's fourth largest refiner with an installed capacity of 25 million tonnes per annum (MTPA), refining companies are working rapidly to increase the capacity to 400 MTPA along with upgrading their units and increasing petrochemical production.

I ask you to explore all opportunities connected with India's energy sector. India is the most opportune place for investment...Today, India is one of the world's leading voices in energy transition & developing new resources.

NARENDRA MODI, PRIME MINISTER

Modi told the audience, which included global energy experts, executives of international and Indian companies, and energy ministers of some countries, that similar efforts to enhance capacity are being undertaken for natural gas pipelines and liquefied natural gas handling capacity. India aims to increase the share of natural gas in the country's primary energy mix to 15 per cent by 2030 from a little over 6 per cent at present.

The PM said that fossil fuel exploration, second generation ethanol, and green hydrogen are among the segments in which India will have investment opportunities worth thousands of crores of rupees.

At the event, Modi also launched a few initiatives, including sale of 20 per cent ethanol-blended petrol on a pilot basis by public sector oil marketing companies. India has already achieved 10 per cent ethanol blending in Petrol and has advanced the deadline to achieve 20% blending by five years to 2025-26.

Petrol blended with ethanol is considered relatively less polluting than petrol. Higher levels of ethanol blending with petrol, apart from being less damaging to the environment, are also likely to help India reduce crude oil imports. India is the world's third-largest consumer of crude oil and depends on imports to meet over 85 per cent of its needs. Costly oil imports result in heavy foreign exchange outflows for the country.

EXPLAINER

ETHANOL SWEETENER FOR SUGAR MILLS

On Monday, the Centre rolled out the 20% ethanol blending programme in 11 states and Union Territories. The ethanol-blending programme has proved to be of immense gain for the sugar industry, where cane dues have come down significantly after having reached record highs. Sandip Das explains how this was achieved

The ethanol boost

TO CURB RELIANCE on imported fossil fuel, the Centre targetted 10% blending of petrol with ethanol by 2021-22, which was achieved. It then advanced the national biofuels policy's deadline for 20% blending to 2025-26 from 2030. The supply to OMCs rose by 973%, to 4.08 billion litres in 2021-22 from 380 million litres in 2013-14. In the current season (2022-23), about 4.5-5 mt of sugar will be diverted for ethanol.

Sugar usage in the country

IN THE 2021-22 SEASON (October-September), out of the total sugar production of 44.4 million tonne (mt), domestic consumption was around 27.3 mt while India exported a record 11 mt of the sweetener. More than 3.6 mt of sugar was diverted for ethanol production.

The government has set a target of 6 mt of surplus sugar to be diverted annually for ethanol production by 2025-26. Food ministry officials say that this would solve the problem of high inventories of sugar and improve the liquidity of mills, thereby, helping in timely payment of cane dues to farmers. Industry sources said that in the current season (2022-23), 8 mt of sugar could be exported while the government so far has sanctioned shipment of 6 mt of the sweetener.

Behind the fall in cane dues

SURPLUSES IN SUGAR production had subdued prices and this had led to farmers having to face record cane-price-payment arrears when it came to the receivables from the sugar mills. Cane arrears rose to a whopping ₹21,000 crore in the 2014-15 season. To address the problem of excess sugar production and the consequent price crash, the government started to encourage mills to divert sugar to ethanol and also to export the surplus production so that they could pay cane dues to farmers in time. This would also improve the financial conditions of mills, was the belief.

The mills have managed to pay most of the ₹93,000 crore of dues receivable by sugarcane farmers for the 2020-21 sugar season. Similarly, for the 2021-22 season, farmers have received a payment of ₹1.16 trillion while the payment of ₹2,310 crore is currently pending.

Benefits to the sugar sector

SINCE 2014, about ₹77,000 crore revenue has been generated by sugar mills and molasses-based distilleries from the sale of ethanol to OMCs, easing payment of cane dues and improving mills' financial health.

Despite record high prices of sugar globally, India has ensured stable domestic prices of sugar. Retail sugar prices have been stable for the past five years with retail inflation being only 0.09% on year-on-year basis in December 2022.

How the government has facilitated the industry in ethanol production

THE GOVERNMENT has been encouraging sugar mills and distilleries to enhance their distillation capacities by providing an interest subvention of 6% (or 50% of the interest charged by the banks, whichever is lower). The government has allowed the production of ethanol from B-heavy molasses, sugarcane juice, sugar syrup, and has fixed remunerative ex-mill prices of ethanol derived from various feed stocks.

For these projects, banks have sanctioned loans of about ₹20,000 crore, of which about ₹10,000 crore for more than 200 projects has already been disbursed.

These projects are likely to generate about 35,000 jobs. There has been a complete transition of the sugar industry from food sector to energy sector, according to a food ministry note. The government has not provided any direct financial assistance to sugar units since last fiscal.

The Centre also amended the Industries (Development & Regulation) Act, 1951, which gave exclusive control of denatured ethanol to the Centre, for smooth movement of ethanol across the country. The Goods & Service Tax (GST) rate on ethanol meant for the blending programme was also brought down from 18% to 5%.

RIL, Ashok Leyland unveil first hydrogen-run truck

SAJAN C KUMAR
Chennai, February 6

ASHOK LEYLAND AND Reliance Industries (RIL) on Monday unveiled India's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE)-powered heavy-duty truck. The vehicle was flagged off by Prime Minister Narendra Modi in Bengaluru at the India Energy Week.

Commercial vehicle manufacturer Ashok Leyland, along with RIL, had been developing this unique technology over the past year and it was under test since August 2022.

The H2-ICE heavy-duty truck (19-35 tonne) is powered by hydrogen, a renewable and clean energy source, maintaining the overall architecture similar to a conventional diesel-based combustion engine, thus helping quicker migration to cleaner energy sources at relatively lower costs.

N Saravanan, president and CTO, Ashok Leyland, said: "Working with RIL, we have once again demonstrated our technological leadership, and our commitment to the clean mobility mission. Having one of the best R&D teams in the country, we want to continue on our path to innovate and leverage new technologies to be a leader in sustainable and environment-friendly mobility."

H2-ICE engines are similar to conventional combustion engines and only a few tweaks are made to convert them to run on hydrogen. The vehicle is equipped with an advanced driver assistant system for enhanced vehicle and road safety.

Budget blow to IBC transactions

There are various instances of stressed assets, where banks take a haircut on the loan provided to the stressed entity, resulting in a write-back of such loan amount waived in the hands of the borrowing stressed entity.

"The loan settlement or waiver by banks for IBC cases should not be treated as taxable income for the stressed entities as taxing the same may make acquisition of such IBC entities unviable," said Smit Sheth, partner, Price Waterhouse & Co.

He said a specific exclusion should be provided for this in Section 28(iv).

"Waiver of loans utilised for capex purposes should be specifically carved out from Section 28(iv) provisions, considering they are in the nature of capital receipts," Sheth said.

Let's say a company takes a loan of ₹100 at 8% per annum, which it uses to buy capital assets. After three years, it pays interest of ₹24, which is claimed as deduction.

Let's assume that no principal has been repaid so far. At the end of three years, the lender waives ₹50 and the balance loan continues on the same terms.

In this case, the principal component of ₹50 will become taxable under the amended Section 28(iv). If the lender waives the proportionate interest component as well, the company will have to pay tax on ₹62 (the principal component plus half of the interest paid).

The benefit or perquisite to be taxable in Section 28(iv) needs to be "arising from business".

"It can be contended that the ... loan waiver would be taxable only if the borrowing entity is engaged in money lending or business of obtaining or granting of loans and not otherwise. This, however, could be a matter of intense litigation," said a tax expert.

Experts believe that the government should bring more clarity on the matter to obviate unnecessary and protracted litigation.

The Union government could either exclude applicability of Section 28(iv) in case of stressed assets under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code or restrict the provision only to trading benefit and perquisite arising from business or exercise of profession, and provide a specific carve out for capital receipts.

Voda Idea surges 20% on equity conversion nod

According to the company, ₹9,600 crore of debt is payable by September 2023, while its gross cash balance as of September 2022 is ₹200 crore. Analysts have estimated that the company will have a cash shortfall of ₹6,400 crore by September 2023, assuming that all debt is repayable.

"We believe Videa (Vodafone Idea) will still be in crisis to fund annual spectrum payments beyond the four-year moratorium (ends in FY25) unless its Arpu reaches ₹300," CLSA said.

The company has lost subscribers for 20 straight months till November, according to data from the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India.

It lost 40 million subscribers during the period, with the total figure at 243.79 million as of November-end.

To sustain operations and generate meaningful cashflows, the telco will have to raise tariffs to take its Arpu (average revenue per user) to ₹356.

As of September-end, its Arpu was ₹131. However, most analysts rule out tariff hikes in the current year owing to inflationary pressures and fear of losing consumers.

"Our checks and discussions with vendors/ towercos (tower companies) indicate that VIL is significantly under invested in fibre, 5G and core telcos infra. It would at least take $6-8 bn (₹50,000 crore-₹65,000 crore) investment to narrow the gap. With limited visibility on any massive cash injections, we expect VIL to lose market share to Bharti & Jio — especially as its peers start improving 5G network," said BofA Securities in a note.

The brokerage has maintained its 'underperform' rating on the shares of the company.

The company had said it needed to raise ₹25,000 crore, of which promoters have already put in ₹4,900 crore. The telco hopes that the conversion of debt into equity would help in raising ₹20,000 crore.

According to the government, promoter Aditya Birla Group has also committed to infusing fresh capital into Vodafone Idea.

The extent of its external fundraise would also depend on the amount that will be brought in by the promoter.

"Whether this involves direct equity infusion by the AB Group and/or external investors remains to be seen. The latest development could therefore potentially kickstart a virtuous cycle of events for VI (Vodafone Idea) as far as its precarious B/S (balance sheet) is concerned, which, in turn, could see it enhancing 4G investments and announcing 5G rollout plans," said Citi Research in a report.

At the end of the July-September quarter, Vodafone Idea's gross debt (excluding lease liabilities and including interest accrued but not due) was ₹2.20 trillion, comprising deferred spectrum payment obligations of ₹1.36 trillion, AGR liabilities of ₹68,590 crore that are due to the government, and debt from banks and financial institutions of ₹15,080 crore.

Vodafone Idea's net loss stood at ₹7,595.5 crore during the July-September quarter.
